

BITTER

Meaning: Bitter: having a sharp, pungent taste or smell; also, characterized by strong feelings of resentment or disappointment.

1. The coffee was too bitter for my taste.
2. She felt a bitter disappointment when she didn't get the job.
3. His bitter remarks during the meeting created an uncomfortable atmosphere.
4. The chocolate had a rich, bitter flavor that complemented the sweetness.
5. After the breakup, he struggled with a bitter sense of loss.
6. Her bitter laughter echoed in the empty room.
7. The dispute left a bitter rift between the two friends.
8. Many people find grapefruit to have a bitter aftertaste.
9. The bitter cold of winter made everyone long for spring.
10. His bitter experience taught him valuable lessons about trust.
11. The bitter taste of the dark chocolate surprised her.
12. After the argument, he felt a bitter resentment towards his friend.
13. It was a bitter cold morning, and the frost covered the ground.
14. She made a bitter decision to leave the job she loved.
15. The movie ended on a bitter note, leaving the audience in silence.
16. He couldn't shake off the bitter memories of his childhood.
17. The coffee was too bitter for her liking, so she added sugar.
18. His bitter experience taught him to be cautious in relationships.
19. Despite their bitter rivalry, they respected each other's talents.
20. The criticism was delivered in a bitter tone that cut her deeply.
21. The coffee was too bitter for my taste, leaving a sharp aftertaste.
22. She felt a bitter disappointment when she didn't receive the promotion.

23. His comments were filled with a bitter sarcasm that was hard to ignore.
24. After the breakup, she couldn't shake off the bitter feelings of betrayal.
25. The medicine had a bitter flavor that made it difficult to swallow.
26. Their rivalry had turned into a bitter feud that lasted for years.
27. He smiled, but his eyes betrayed a bitter sadness underneath.
28. The bitter cold of winter made everyone long for the warmth of spring.
29. She often reminisced about the bitter moments that shaped her character.
30. The film's ending left a bitter taste, questioning the nature of justice.
31. The chocolate was too bitter for my taste, overwhelming the sweetness I expected.
32. She felt a bitter pang of jealousy as she watched her friend succeed.
33. His bitter comments about the project reflected his disappointment in the team's efforts.
34. The coffee had a bitter aftertaste that lingered long after the last sip.
35. Despite the bitter cold, they decided to go for a walk in the snow.
36. The relationship ended on a bitter note, leaving both parties feeling hurt.
37. Her bitter memories of the past haunted her, making it hard to move on.
38. The debate turned bitter, with both sides refusing to back down.
39. He spoke in a bitter tone, revealing his frustration with the situation.
40. The medicine was effective but had a bitter flavor that made it difficult to swallow.