

BITTERBUMP

Meaning: Bitterbump: a rough or uncomfortable protrusion or feeling that signifies hardship or tension in a physical or emotional context.

1. The bitterbump on the old tree reminded her of the harsh winter they had endured.
2. After the argument, a bitterbump seemed to grow between them, making communication awkward.
3. He noticed a bitterbump in the landscape where the drought had taken its toll.
4. The bitterbump of disappointment lingered long after the announcement was made.
5. In the garden, a bitterbump of weeds threatened to overtake her carefully planted flowers.
6. The athlete felt a bitterbump of regret for not training harder before the big race.
7. She tried to ignore the bitterbump of envy that arose when she saw her friend's success.
8. The film left a bitterbump of sadness in the audience as they reflected on its themes.
9. Every time she heard that song, it brought back a bitterbump of nostalgia for her youth.
10. He couldn't shake the bitterbump of guilt after forgetting their anniversary.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bitterbump>