BITTERING

Meaning: Bittering refers to causing a feeling of deep sadness or discomfort, often associated with harshness or regret.

1. The bittering winds howled through the empty streets, chilling everyone to the bone.
2. She felt a sense of bittering regret as she looked back on her lost opportunities.
3. The intense flavor of the dark chocolate had a bittering effect on his palate.
4. As the sun set, a bittering chill settled over the quiet town.
5. Their argument left a bittering taste in the air, lingering long after they had parted ways.
6. He struggled with a bittering sense of betrayal after discovering the truth.
7. The bittering reality of their situation sank in as the days passed without a solution.
8. With each passing year, the bittering memories of their friendship began to fade.
9. The bittering news of the layoffs cast a shadow over the once vibrant office.
10. Her eyes reflected a bittering sadness that words could not express.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bittering