

BITTERNESS

Meaning: Bitterness is a sharp, unpleasant taste or a deep-seated feeling of anger and resentment.

1. Her eyes reflected a deep bitterness that had taken years to cultivate.
2. The bitterness of the coffee matched the mood in the room.
3. Despite their success, he couldn't shake off the bitterness from past failures.
4. She spoke with such bitterness that it was hard to remember the happier times.
5. The bitterness of the loss lingered long after the game was over.
6. He tried to mask his bitterness with a smile, but it was evident to everyone.
7. The bitterness in his voice revealed the pain he had been holding onto.
8. Forgiveness is often the antidote to bitterness and resentment.
9. Their argument left a taste of bitterness that soured their friendship.
10. The novel explored themes of love, loss, and the resulting bitterness of unfulfilled dreams.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bitterness>