

BITUMINIZE

Meaning: Bituminize (verb): to treat a surface, especially a road, with bitumen to improve its durability and weather resistance.

1. The road construction crew decided to bituminize the newly laid gravel to enhance its durability.
2. To ensure longevity, the engineers recommended that the surface be bituminized before winter arrives.
3. Bituminizing the driveway not only improved its appearance but also made it more resistant to water damage.
4. The local government allocated funds to bituminize the main thoroughfare, which had suffered from heavy rainfall.
5. After the old surface was removed, the workers began to bituminize the area for a smoother finish.
6. Bituminizing the playground surface helped provide a safer environment for the children to play.
7. The contractor presented a plan to bituminize the parking lot, aiming to reduce maintenance costs in the long run.
8. As part of the road improvement project, they will bituminize the stretch leading to the new shopping center.
9. Bituminizing the path through the park made it accessible year-round, even during rainy seasons.
10. The decision to bituminize the hiking trail was met with mixed reactions from environmentalists and local residents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bituminize>