

BITUMINOUS

Meaning: Bituminous refers to a type of coal or asphalt that contains a significant amount of bitumen, characterized by its sticky, tar-like quality and used in paving and industrial applications.

1. The road was paved with a bituminous mixture that provided a smooth surface for vehicles.
2. Bituminous coal is often used in the production of steel due to its high carbon content.
3. The engineer recommended a bituminous binder to enhance the durability of the asphalt layers.
4. Due to its ability to withstand high temperatures, bituminous roofing is a popular choice for flat roofs.
5. In the laboratory, researchers analyzed the properties of bituminous materials for construction applications.
6. The flexibility of bituminous products makes them suitable for various environmental conditions.
7. Many highways utilize a bituminous surface to reduce noise and improve ride quality.
8. Bituminous shales are being studied for their potential as a source of hydrocarbons.
9. The construction crew mixed the bituminous aggregate thoroughly to ensure consistent quality.
10. A bituminous seal coat was applied to protect the pavement from weathering and deterioration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bituminous>