

BIVIUM

Meaning: BIVIUM (noun): A point where two paths or trails diverge.

1. The hikers paused at the bivium, unsure of which path to take.
2. At the bivium, the two trails diverged, leading to different scenic views.
3. The map indicated a bivium ahead, where we could decide our next destination.
4. After a long climb, they reached a bivium that offered a breathtaking panorama.
5. Choosing the right route at the bivium was crucial for their journey.
6. The bivium was marked with a signpost, guiding travelers in the right direction.
7. She felt a sense of adventure at the bivium, excited by the choices that lay before her.
8. Navigating the bivium required careful consideration of the terrain ahead.
9. The ancient pathway led them to a bivium that had been forgotten by time.
10. At the bivium, they shared stories of their travels while contemplating their next move.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bivium>