

BIWEEKLY

Meaning: Biweekly refers to an occurrence happening every two weeks.

1. The team holds biweekly meetings to discuss project progress.
2. She receives her paycheck on a biweekly basis, which helps with budgeting.
3. The magazine is published biweekly, featuring the latest trends and articles.
4. They decided to schedule biweekly check-ins to ensure everyone is on track.
5. His biweekly workout routine has significantly improved his fitness levels.
6. The club organizes biweekly events to keep members engaged and active.
7. Biweekly reports are essential for tracking the company's performance.
8. The library hosts biweekly book discussions that attract a diverse crowd.
9. She prefers biweekly grocery shopping to avoid overcrowded stores on weekends.
10. The biweekly newsletter keeps the community informed about upcoming events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/biweekly>