

BLAB

Meaning: To blab means to talk excessively or indiscreetly about private or confidential matters.

1. She tends to blab about personal matters that should remain private.
2. I wish he wouldn't blab to everyone about our plans before we finalize them.
3. The kids would blab about their surprise party if we didn't keep it a secret.
4. I can't believe you blabbed my secret; now everyone knows!
5. During the meeting, she accidentally blabbed the details of the confidential project.
6. It's hard to keep a secret when you have someone who loves to blab.
7. He always manages to blab the latest gossip as soon as it happens.
8. Don't blab about the new job offer until everything is official.
9. She has a habit of blabbing the truth, even when it's not the right time.
10. If you blab about this, I won't be able to trust you again.
11. She tends to blab about her personal life to anyone who will listen.
12. If you keep blabbing secrets, you might end up losing your friends.
13. I didn't mean to blab; I thought everyone already knew the news.
14. His tendency to blab makes it hard for him to keep a job.
15. During the meeting, she let it slip and blabbed about the upcoming project.
16. Try not to blab about the surprise party until we're ready to reveal it.
17. He blabbed so much that we lost track of the main topic of conversation.
18. It's frustrating when someone can't help but blab in a quiet café.
19. She blabbed the details of the trip, and now it's no longer a surprise.
20. I caught him blabbing to his friends about our plans for the weekend.
21. I can't believe you blabbed about the surprise party.
22. She tends to blab when she's excited, often revealing too much.

23. It's best not to blab about your plans until they're finalized.
24. He was careful not to blab any secrets during the meeting.
25. After a few drinks, she started to blab about her personal life.
26. The kids blabbed about their trip at school, spoiling the fun for everyone.
27. If you blab about this, you'll ruin my chances of getting the job.
28. He was warned not to blab, but he couldn't help himself.
29. Don't blab to anyone else; it's supposed to be a private matter.
30. Sometimes it's hard not to blab when you have exciting news to share.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blab>