

BLABBER

Meaning: Blabber (verb): To talk excessively or carelessly, often without regard for who is listening or the relevance of the information.

1. She tends to blabber about her weekend plans without noticing who's listening.
2. I wish he would stop blabbering and get to the point of his story.
3. The kids were told not to blabber about the surprise party.
4. During the meeting, she couldn't help but blabber on about her recent vacation.
5. He blabbered excitedly about his new job, unaware of the time.
6. It's hard to concentrate with all that blabbering happening in the background.
7. She knew better than to blabber sensitive information in public.
8. His habit of blabbering often leads to misunderstandings.
9. I caught myself blabbering about my hobbies to a stranger at the coffee shop.
10. They laughed as he blabbered nervously during his first presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blabber>