

BLACK-A-VISED

Meaning: Black-a-vised refers to an object or frame that has a black finish or coating, often used to enhance or contrast with surrounding colors.

1. The artist chose a black-a-vised frame to complement the vibrant colors of the painting.
2. In the dim light, the black-a-vised furniture stood out against the pale walls.
3. She admired the black-a-vised bird, its striking features captivating her attention.
4. The black-a-vised decoration added an elegant touch to the otherwise simple room.
5. He wore a black-a-vised jacket that contrasted sharply with his white shirt.
6. The black-a-vised accents in the design gave the room a modern flair.
7. As the sun set, the silhouette of the black-a-vised tree became more pronounced.
8. The black-a-vised detailing on the costume made it look more luxurious.
9. They were drawn to the black-a-vised shoes displayed in the store window.
10. The black-a-vised edges of the photograph framed the moment perfectly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/black-a-vised>