

BLACK-LETTER

Meaning: Black-letter refers to a style of Gothic typeface characterized by its ornate, heavy, and angular letters, often used in historical texts and calligraphy.

1. The book was beautifully printed in black-letter, giving it an antique feel.
2. She admired the calligraphy in black-letter that adorned the wedding invitations.
3. The black-letter style was commonly used in medieval manuscripts.
4. His thesis included a chapter discussing the significance of black-letter typography.
5. The old church had black-letter inscriptions on its stone walls, telling stories of the past.
6. During the lecture, the professor illustrated the evolution of black-letter script through the centuries.
7. The artist chose black-letter for the title of his painting, evoking a sense of history.
8. Many historic documents were written in black-letter, making them challenging to read today.
9. The black-letter font added a touch of elegance to the formal announcement.
10. She discovered a collection of poems printed in black-letter at the antiquarian bookstore.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/black-letter>