

BLACKLEAD

Meaning: Blacklead refers to a type of pencil that uses a core made primarily of graphite, producing a dark mark when used for writing or drawing.

1. The blacklead pencil left a rich, dark mark on the paper.
2. She carefully sharpened the blacklead to a fine point for detailed sketches.
3. In art class, we learned how to blend colors using blacklead and pastels.
4. The blacklead in those old pencils was perfect for creating bold lines.
5. He preferred using blacklead for his technical drawings because of its precision.
6. The artist's tools included various grades of blacklead to achieve different effects.
7. She was amazed at how smooth the blacklead glided across the canvas.
8. The blacklead used in the sculpture gave it a striking contrast against the marble.
9. He always carried a blacklead pencil in his pocket for spontaneous ideas.
10. The blacklead's deep hue made the artwork stand out from the rest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blacklead>