

BLACKMAILER

Meaning: A blackmailer is a person who unlawfully demands money or favors from someone by threatening to reveal compromising information about them.

1. The detective was determined to catch the blackmailer before more damage was done.
2. After receiving threatening letters, she realized she was the target of a cunning blackmailer.
3. The police arrested the blackmailer after a lengthy investigation into his activities.
4. He lived in fear of being exposed by the blackmailer who had all his secrets.
5. In a shocking twist, the victim turned out to be the blackmailer all along.
6. She hired a private investigator to help her deal with the relentless blackmailer.
7. The blackmailer's demands grew more outrageous with each passing day.
8. It was difficult for the community to trust anyone after the blackmailer's reign of terror.
9. Fearing for his reputation, he reluctantly paid the blackmailer to keep the scandal quiet.
10. The courtroom was tense as the blackmailer faced the consequences of his actions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blackmailer>