BLACKMAILING

Meaning: Blackmailing is the act of threatening to reveal damaging information about someone unless they pay money or meet certain demands.

1. She was accused of blackmailing her former employer for a significant sum of money.
2. The investigation revealed a complex scheme involving blackmailing multiple victims.
3. He faced serious legal consequences for blackmailing his business partner over a contract dispute.
4. Blackmailing someone can lead to both civil and criminal charges in most jurisdictions.
5. The movie's plot centered around a character who became entangled in a web of blackmailing and deceit.
6. They discovered evidence of blackmailing that had been going on for years without detection.
7. The victim felt trapped and powerless due to the constant threat of blackmailing.
8. Blackmailing often stems from a desire for control and manipulation over another person.
9. After a lengthy trial, the defendant was found guilty of blackmailing a public official.
10. She sought help from the authorities after realizing she was being blackmailed by an anonymous source.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blackmailing