

BLADY

Meaning: 'Blady' refers to something that is characterized by or resembling blades, often used to describe grass or a heroic quality.

1. The blady grass swayed gently in the evening breeze.
2. He always imagined himself as the blady hero of his own story.
3. The blady atmosphere at the party made everyone feel uncomfortable.
4. She wore a blady expression after hearing the disappointing news.
5. The blady debate on climate change sparked heated discussions.
6. His blady attitude towards the project frustrated his team members.
7. The blady landscape was dotted with wildflowers in full bloom.
8. With a blady smile, she accepted the award for her hard work.
9. The blady silence in the room was palpable after the announcement.
10. They enjoyed a blady afternoon picnic under the old oak tree.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blady>