

BLAMER

Meaning: Blamer (noun): a person who attributes fault or responsibility for a problem or failure to others rather than accepting their own role in it.

1. A true leader never plays the blamer when things go wrong.
2. In every group project, there's usually one blamer who tries to shift the fault away from themselves.
3. She has a tendency to be a blamer, always pointing fingers instead of finding solutions.
4. Being a blamer can damage relationships and create a toxic atmosphere.
5. He became known as the blamer after he constantly criticized others for their mistakes.
6. The team's morale suffered because of the blamer who refused to take responsibility.
7. Instead of being a blamer, he chose to learn from his errors and improve.
8. In difficult times, it's essential to avoid the blamer mentality and focus on teamwork.
9. The manager encouraged open communication to prevent any blamer attitudes from surfacing.
10. Her reputation as a blamer preceded her, making others reluctant to collaborate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blamer>