

BLANK

Meaning: Blank: lacking any marks, writing, or content; empty.

1. The artist stared at the blank canvas, waiting for inspiration to strike.
2. After hours of brainstorming, her notepad remained frustratingly blank.
3. He felt a sense of dread as he faced the blank test sheet before him.
4. The report was due, but her mind was a complete blank.
5. She handed him a blank check to fill in the amount he needed.
6. In the meeting, he presented ideas but was met with blank stares from his colleagues.
7. The novel started with a blank page, an opportunity for endless possibilities.
8. I found a blank wall in the gallery that needed a vibrant mural.
9. The child's face lit up with joy as they received a blank sketchbook for their birthday.
10. He realized he had left his memory blank for the past few hours.
11. The artist stared at the blank canvas, searching for inspiration.
12. She submitted a blank application form by mistake, causing a delay in the process.
13. His mind felt blank during the exam, as if all his preparation had vanished.
14. After hours of discussion, the meeting ended with a blank agreement that satisfied no one.
15. The teacher handed out blank sheets of paper for the students to express their creativity.
16. He gazed at the blank wall, contemplating what to paint next.
17. During the presentation, she realized her slides were entirely blank, leading to an awkward moment.
18. The novel started with a blank page, inviting readers to imagine the story ahead.
19. She felt a blank expression on her face as she processed the shocking news.
20. The blank screen flickered, waiting for someone to type in the password.
21. She handed me a blank piece of paper to jot down my thoughts.
22. His mind went blank during the interview, and he struggled to answer the questions.

23. After the long meeting, my notebook was mostly blank, filled with only a few scribbles.
24. The children eagerly filled in the blank spaces in their coloring books.
25. I opened the document, only to find a blank page staring back at me.
26. With a blank expression, he listened to the news without saying a word.
27. The teacher asked the students to complete the sentence by filling in the blank.
28. She felt a sense of relief as she finally crossed out the blank tasks on her to-do list.
29. The room was eerily quiet, save for the sound of a blank tape playing in the background.
30. The canvas was completely blank, waiting for inspiration to strike.
31. She stared at the blank page, unsure of how to begin her story.
32. His expression remained blank, offering no clues about his thoughts.
33. After the meeting, the agenda looked surprisingly blank with no notes taken.
34. The teacher handed out a blank quiz sheet to each student.
35. In the midst of chaos, her mind felt utterly blank.
36. They filled out the form, leaving the last section blank by accident.
37. A blank stare was all that greeted him when he asked for help.
38. The artist loved the thrill of starting with a blank slate.
39. He felt a rush of excitement as he opened the blank notebook for the first time.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blank>*