

BLANKLY

Meaning: 'Blankly' means in a manner showing no expression or emotion, often indicating confusion or lack of understanding.

1. She stared blankly at the wall, lost in thought.
2. He responded blankly, as if he hadn't heard the question at all.
3. The child looked up blankly when asked about his favorite color.
4. She listened blankly to the lecture, her mind wandering elsewhere.
5. He smiled blankly, unsure of how to react to the news.
6. The audience sat blankly, waiting for the speaker to begin.
7. She blinked blankly, processing the unexpected turn of events.
8. He walked blankly down the street, deep in his own thoughts.
9. Her expression was blankly inscrutable, leaving everyone guessing.
10. The blankly painted canvas hung in the gallery, provoking curiosity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blankly>