

BLANKNESS

Meaning: Blankness refers to a state of emptiness or lack of content, often evoking feelings of unease or profound silence.

1. The blankness of the canvas made her feel both anxious and excited.
2. In his eyes, there was a haunting blankness that spoke volumes about his past.
3. After hours of studying, I stared at the exam paper in blankness, unable to recall anything.
4. The blankness of the room felt eerie, as if it held secrets waiting to be uncovered.
5. She felt a profound sense of blankness wash over her after the shocking news.
6. The blankness in the sky mirrored his mood on that dreary afternoon.
7. As the artist faced the empty page, a wave of blankness threatened to engulf his creativity.
8. He tried to articulate his thoughts, but all that came out was a deep blankness.
9. The blankness of the void left her feeling both small and insignificant.
10. In moments of silence, the blankness can be as powerful as the loudest noise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blankness>