

BLARE

Meaning: To blare means to make a loud, harsh sound or to emit sound forcefully and loudly.

1. The sirens began to blare as the fire truck rushed past.
2. During the concert, the speakers blared out music that made everyone dance.
3. She had to cover her ears when the car alarm started to blare unexpectedly.
4. The announcement was drowned out by the blaring of the horns in the busy street.
5. As the sun set, the sound of the blare from the nearby factory became more pronounced.
6. His voice blared through the microphone, echoing in the empty auditorium.
7. The blare of the train whistle signaled its departure from the station.
8. In the chaos, someone accidentally hit the button that caused the loud blare of an air horn.
9. The blaring noise from the television distracted me from my thoughts.
10. They could hear the blare of music from the festival long before they arrived.
11. The sirens began to blare as the emergency vehicles approached.
12. He turned up the volume to blare his favorite song throughout the house.
13. During the parade, the bands would blare their music to entertain the crowd.
14. The loudspeaker started to blare announcements about the upcoming event.
15. As the clock struck midnight, fireworks blared and lit up the night sky.
16. She couldn't concentrate on her work with the car alarms blaring outside.
17. The coach would blare instructions during practice to motivate the players.
18. In the distance, the train's horn began to blare, signaling its arrival.
19. The blare of the foghorn echoed across the harbor warning ships of danger.
20. They had to shout over the blare of the crowd cheering at the concert.
21. The horns began to blare as the parade made its way down Main Street.
22. I could hear the sirens blare in the distance, signaling an emergency.

23. The loud music continued to blare from the speakers, drowning out all conversation.
24. As the clock struck midnight, fireworks blared and lit up the sky.
25. He tried to focus on his work, but the blare of the construction outside was distracting.
26. The radio would blare every morning, waking me up with its jarring tunes.
27. With a sudden blare, the alarm made everyone in the building jump.
28. The dog started barking loudly as the car horn blared continuously.
29. She turned up the volume, letting the music blare through the empty house.
30. During the storm, the weather alert blared, warning us of potential danger.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blare>