

BLAST

Meaning: Blast: a sudden and intense burst of energy or force, often resulting in a loud noise or explosion.

1. The fireworks created a spectacular blast of color in the night sky.
2. The engineer warned that a blast could occur if the pressure wasn't released.
3. We had a blast at the amusement park, riding all the thrilling roller coasters.
4. The explosion sent a blast of heat and debris in all directions.
5. She let out a blast of laughter that filled the entire room.
6. After the bomb went off, a loud blast echoed through the valley.
7. A sudden blast of wind knocked the papers off my desk.
8. The music had such a powerful beat that it felt like a blast of energy.
9. His announcement was met with a blast of applause from the audience.
10. The scientist conducted a controlled blast to test the new materials.
11. The fireworks put on a spectacular blast that lit up the night sky.
12. After the storm, we found a huge blast of wind had knocked down several trees.
13. The party was such a blast that everyone was talking about it for weeks.
14. He used a blast of cold air from the air conditioner to cool down the room.
15. The scientist conducted a controlled blast to test the materials' durability.
16. A sudden blast of music filled the room as the band started playing.
17. The team celebrated their victory with a blast of confetti and cheers.
18. In the film, the hero survives a massive blast from an exploding building.
19. The unexpected blast of laughter made the tense atmosphere much lighter.
20. She felt a blast of excitement as she opened the acceptance letter from her dream school.
21. The archaeologists discovered a blast from the past in the form of ancient artifacts.
22. He felt a blast of cold air as he opened the door to the freezer.

23. The band played a blast of music that got everyone dancing.
 24. Her laughter was like a blast of joy that filled the room.
 25. The construction site echoed with the blast of heavy machinery.
 26. They experienced a blast of adrenaline during the thrilling roller coaster ride.
 27. The volcano erupted with a powerful blast that shook the surrounding area.
 28. After a long week, the party was a much-needed blast of fun.
 29. The sudden blast of news took everyone by surprise at the meeting.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blast>