

BLATTERER

Meaning: A blatterer is a person who talks excessively or in a rambling manner, often sharing stories or opinions regardless of the interest of others.

1. The blatterer at the café always had a story to tell, regardless of the audience.
2. During the meeting, his reputation as a blatterer became evident as he dominated the conversation.
3. She found it exhausting to sit through the ramblings of a blatterer who never got to the point.
4. Despite being a blatterer, he had a charming way of engaging everyone around him.
5. The blatterer in the office was often seen as both a source of amusement and frustration.
6. Her tendency to blather on made her the self-proclaimed queen of small talk.
7. Even though he was a known blatterer, his insights were often surprisingly valuable.
8. At parties, the blatterer would hold court, delighting some while irritating others.
9. Friends teased him for being a blatterer, but they secretly enjoyed his animated tales.
10. Listening to the blatterer recount past adventures felt like watching a live performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blatterer>