

BLATTERING

Meaning: Blattering: making a loud, continuous noise or chatter, often in an excited or lively manner.

1. The children were blattering excitedly about their upcoming trip to the amusement park.
2. As she walked through the park, she could hear the blattering of birds in the trees.
3. His blattering speech made it hard for anyone to focus on the main topic of discussion.
4. The blattering of the stream provided a soothing background noise as we relaxed by the campsite.
5. Despite the blattering of her friends, she remained focused on her book.
6. The constant blattering in the coffee shop made it difficult to concentrate on work.
7. She rolled her eyes at the blattering gossip that circulated around the office.
8. His blattering laughter echoed through the hallway, drawing attention from everyone nearby.
9. The blattering sound of the wind through the branches created an eerie atmosphere.
10. They continued blattering about trivial matters, completely oblivious to the seriousness of the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blattering>