

BLEA

Meaning: Blea (adjective): a shade of blue or bluish-gray, often associated with a tranquil or muted tone.

1. The sky turned a deep blea as the sun set behind the mountains.
2. The artist chose a blea color palette to evoke a sense of calm in her painting.
3. Her mood shifted from bright to blea with the onset of the rain.
4. They discovered a rare flower with blea petals in the hidden garden.
5. The ocean waves reflected a blea hue under the twilight sky.
6. In the dim light, the walls appeared blea, giving the room an eerie feeling.
7. He wore a blea scarf that complemented his gray coat perfectly.
8. The photograph captured the blea light of dawn breaking over the horizon.
9. As autumn approached, the leaves took on a blea tint that was breathtaking.
10. She recalled the blea memories of her childhood spent by the sea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blea>