

BLEACHED

Meaning: Bleached: having lost color or brightness due to exposure to sunlight or chemicals.

1. The sun had bleached the fabric, leaving it a pale shadow of its original color.
2. After several washes, the once vibrant artwork was bleached to an almost unrecognizable state.
3. She preferred the bleached look of the wood, as it gave the furniture a modern aesthetic.
4. The beach towels were bleached by the sun, making them look worn and faded.
5. His hair was intentionally bleached for the summer, giving him a fresh, carefree appearance.
6. Bleached coral reefs are a sign of a struggling marine ecosystem due to rising temperatures.
7. The photographer loved how the bleached landscape created a stark contrast against the blue sky.
8. They discovered that the bleach had accidentally spilled, ruining the once colorful mural.
9. The artist experimented with bleached paper, creating unique textures in her artwork.
10. In the harsh sunlight, the colors of the painted fence quickly became bleached and dull.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bleached>