

BLEAR-EYED

Meaning: BLEAR-EYED: having watery or dim eyes, often due to fatigue or lack of sleep.

1. She stumbled into the room, blear-eyed and disoriented from lack of sleep.
2. The old man sat on the porch, blear-eyed but still full of stories to tell.
3. After a long night of studying, he walked to class blear-eyed and yawning.
4. The blear-eyed kitten struggled to keep its eyes open as it nuzzled against its mother.
5. She wiped the sleep from her blear-eyed gaze and reached for her morning coffee.
6. Blear-eyed and weary, he finally decided to take a break from work.
7. The blear-eyed child peered out from beneath the covers, reluctant to face the day.
8. With blear-eyed confusion, he tried to remember where he had left his keys.
9. Her blear-eyed expression revealed the toll that the late-night party had taken on her.
10. The blear-eyed artist painted until dawn, lost in the colors of his imagination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blear-eyed>