

BLEAREYE

Meaning: Bleareye refers to having blurred or watery eyes, often resulting from fatigue, irritation, or exposure to bright light.

1. The bleareye dog squinted against the harsh sunlight as it wandered through the park.
2. After a long night of studying, she felt bleareye and needed some rest.
3. His bleareye expression made it clear that he hadn't slept well in days.
4. The bleareye appearance of the old painting suggested it had been neglected for years.
5. She rubbed her bleareye eyes, trying to adjust to the brightness of the room.
6. The bleareye child struggled to focus on the board in front of her.
7. With a bleareye look, he searched for his glasses on the cluttered desk.
8. Bleareye from lack of sleep, he still managed to give an engaging presentation.
9. The bleareye cat blinked slowly as it lounged in the afternoon sun.
10. Despite her bleareye state, she managed to laugh at her friend's joke.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bleareye>