BLEATER

Meaning: BLEATER: A person who complains or whines excessively; also, a term for a sheep or goat that makes a bleating sound.

1. The politician was often criticized for being a bleater, more concerned with complaints than solutions.
2. In the quiet of the barn, the bleater of the sheep echoed softly through the night.
3. She dismissed his bleater-like whining and focused on getting the job done.
4. The bleater in the group seemed to always find something to complain about.
5. As the storm approached, the bleater in the flock grew increasingly anxious.
6. His reputation as a bleater made it hard for people to take him seriously.
7. Among the animals, the bleater was the one that drew the most attention.
8. The constant bleater of the goats created a lively atmosphere on the farm.
9. During the meeting, his bleater of grievances overshadowed any constructive dialogue.
10. Despite being a bleater, she had moments of insight that surprised everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bleater