

BLEB

Meaning: A bleb is a small fluid-filled sac or blister that forms on the surface of the skin or mucous membranes.

1. The doctor explained that a bleb can form on the surface of a blister.
2. After the injury, I noticed a small bleb developing under the skin.
3. Researchers are studying the role of blebs in cell division and migration.
4. The bleb on her finger turned red and started to swell, causing her discomfort.
5. In some cases, a bleb may indicate an underlying health issue that requires attention.
6. He pointed out the bleb on the glass slide under the microscope for his classmates.
7. Blebs can appear in various medical conditions, including lung diseases.
8. The scientists observed how the bleb detached from the cell membrane.
9. Her skin condition often resulted in painful blebs that took time to heal.
10. The presence of a bleb can sometimes complicate the healing process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bleb>