

BLEEDER

Meaning: Bleeder (noun): a person or animal that is losing blood, especially due to an injury.

1. The doctor rushed to attend to the bleeder on the operating table.
2. During the intense match, one player became a bleeder after a rough tackle.
3. The medic quickly applied pressure to the bleeder to stop the blood flow.
4. In the world of finance, a bleeder refers to a company consistently losing money.
5. She was a notorious bleeder in the poker game, unable to hold onto her chips.
6. The artist used red ink to create a dramatic effect, mimicking a bleeder's trail.
7. In the construction site, safety protocols are crucial to prevent any bleeder incidents.
8. The film featured a character known as the "bleeder," who always found himself in trouble.
9. After the accident, the paramedics focused on the bleeder to stabilize the patient.
10. His reputation as a bleeder preceded him, making others cautious in business deals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bleeder>