

BLIND

Meaning: 'Blind' refers to the condition of lacking sight or vision, as well as a covering for windows that blocks light.

1. She was born blind but has never let it define her capabilities.
2. The blinds in the room were drawn to keep out the harsh afternoon sunlight.
3. He felt a sudden blind panic as he realized he had lost his wallet.
4. The artist created a stunning painting that captured the essence of blind faith.
5. He was blind to the consequences of his actions until it was too late.
6. The dog led its blind owner safely through the crowded streets.
7. In a blind race, competitors must rely on their instincts to navigate the course.
8. Her blind trust in him was ultimately misplaced, leading to disappointment.
9. The novel explores the theme of blind ambition and its repercussions.
10. They used a blindfold during the game to heighten the sense of challenge.
11. She was born blind but navigated the world with incredible confidence.
12. The blindfolded magician performed a trick that left the audience in awe.
13. His blind loyalty to the company cost him his job when they went bankrupt.
14. The blind man used a white cane to help him move through the crowded street.
15. In her blind ambition, she overlooked the advice of her closest friends.
16. The blind date turned out to be a pleasant surprise for both of them.
17. He had a blind spot when it came to recognizing his own mistakes.
18. The artist painted with such emotion that it transcended the boundaries of blindness.
19. The organization works tirelessly to improve accessibility for blind individuals.
20. She felt a blind urge to protect her younger sister from any harm.
21. The artist created a stunning mural that captivated everyone, even those who were blind.
22. He felt a sudden rush of anxiety when he realized he had forgotten his glasses and was effectively blind without them.

23. Blind to the dangers ahead, she ventured into the forest, unaware of the lurking threats.

24. The charity event raised funds to support programs for blind children, helping them find their way in the world.

25. He was blind to her true intentions, believing her words without question.

26. After the accident, he had to adapt to life as a blind person, learning to navigate the world anew.

27. The blindfolded game added an element of surprise, as participants had to rely on their other senses.

28. She had a blind trust in her friend, never doubting their loyalty or honesty.

29. The novel explored the theme of blindness, both literal and metaphorical, in a profound way.

30. Despite being blind, he had an incredible ability to perceive emotions and intentions in others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blind>