

BLINDER

Meaning: A blinder is an outstanding or exceptional performance or display, particularly in sports or the arts.

1. The athlete put on a blinder during the championship match, securing his team's victory.
2. Her performance in the school play was a blinder, leaving the audience in awe.
3. Despite the harsh weather, the festival turned out to be a blinder, attracting a huge crowd.
4. He pulled off a blinder of a deal that left everyone wondering how he managed it.
5. The artist's latest exhibition was a blinder, showcasing breathtaking pieces that captivated visitors.
6. After months of preparation, the wedding was a blinder, filled with joy and beautiful moments.
7. The film was a blinder, receiving rave reviews and breaking box office records.
8. The keynote speaker delivered a blinder of a speech that inspired everyone in the room.
9. They organized a blinder of a party that everyone talked about for weeks afterward.
10. Her unexpected success in the competition was nothing short of a blinder, surprising all her peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blinder>