BLINK

Meaning: To close and open the eyes quickly, often involuntarily, usually in response to changes in light or to maintain eye moisture.

1. She tried to hold her gaze steady, but she couldn't help but blink at the sudden brightness.
2. The cat watched the bird intently, refusing to blink even once.
3. As the headlights approached, he instinctively blinked against the glare.
4. When she heard the surprising news, she blinked in disbelief.
5. The teacher asked the class to blink twice if they understood the instructions.
6. He felt his eyes begin to water, forcing him to blink rapidly.
7. In moments of intense concentration, we often forget to blink.
8. The artist captured the fleeting moment of a blink in her painting.
9. After staring at the screen for hours, I had to blink to refocus my vision.
10. Sometimes, a simple blink can convey more than a thousand words.
11. She had to blink several times to adjust to the bright sunlight.
12. The sudden movement made him blink in surprise.
13. Don't blink, or you might miss the amazing view.
14. As the magician performed his trick, the audience couldn't help but blink in disbelief.
15. I could feel my eyes getting dry, so I took a moment to blink.
16. With every blink, the memories of that day flooded back to her.
17. He tried to stay awake, but the fatigue made him blink repeatedly.
18. The camera flash made her blink just as the picture was taken.
19. When the teacher asked a question, most of the students didn’t even blink.
20. I watched the stars twinkle, wondering if they ever blinked back at us.
21. She didn't even blink when he revealed his secret.
22. The bright lights made him blink rapidly in surprise.

23. It’s easy to miss the moment if you blink too quickly.

24. With a single blink, she signaled him to be quiet.

25. He had to blink several times to adjust to the bright sun.

26. The movie was so intense that I forgot to blink for minutes.

27. When the camera flashed, I instinctively blinked.

28. Just a blink of an eye can change everything.

29. She took a deep breath and blinked away her tears.

30. In the blink of an eye, the dog darted across the street.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blink