

BLISTER

Meaning: A blister is a small, fluid-filled sac that forms on the skin, typically as a result of friction, heat, or irritation.

1. The heat of the sun caused a painful blister on her shoulder.
2. After running the marathon, he discovered a blister on his heel.
3. She applied a soothing ointment to the blister to ease the discomfort.
4. The blister on the panicked dog's paw made it difficult for him to walk.
5. Wearing tight shoes all day can lead to unsightly blisters on your feet.
6. He winced as the doctor carefully drained the blister on his finger.
7. The blister formed after she spent too much time gardening without gloves.
8. She felt a sharp sting as the blister burst, releasing fluid.
9. To prevent blisters, it's essential to wear moisture-wicking socks during hikes.
10. The athlete wrapped his foot carefully to protect the blister from further irritation.
11. The heat of the pavement caused a blister to form on my foot.
12. After hiking for hours, I noticed a painful blister developing on my heel.
13. She applied a bandage over the blister to protect it from further irritation.
14. The athlete winced as the blister on his palm burst during the competition.
15. He learned the hard way that wearing new shoes for too long can lead to blisters.
16. Blisters can be a common side effect of friction or repetitive motion.
17. The doctor advised her to keep the blister clean and dry to prevent infection.
18. Despite the blister, she continued to run, determined to finish the race.
19. He used a needle to carefully pop the blister, hoping for relief.
20. The blister on the sunburned skin was a painful reminder of his oversight.
21. The heat from the sand caused a painful blister on her foot.
22. He tried to ignore the blister forming on his hand from the heavy lifting.

23. After the hike, she discovered a blister had developed on her heel.
24. The athlete applied a special bandage to protect the blister during the competition.
25. His skin was so sensitive that even a small friction could cause a blister.
26. She winced as the doctor gently lanced the blister to relieve the pressure.
27. The long run resulted in a blister that took weeks to heal completely.
28. He learned the hard way that proper footwear can prevent painful blisters.
29. The blister popped unexpectedly, leaving a raw spot on her skin.
30. She was frustrated to see a blister form just before her big race.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blister>