

BLOCKHOUSE

Meaning: A blockhouse is a sturdy, fortified structure used for defense, often serving as a refuge during military conflicts.

1. The soldiers took refuge in the old blockhouse during the fierce battle.
2. A blockhouse can serve as a stronghold in times of conflict.
3. Local historians have preserved the remnants of a 19th-century blockhouse.
4. We spent the afternoon exploring the blockhouse that overlooks the valley.
5. During our hike, we stumbled upon a hidden blockhouse tucked away in the woods.
6. The blockhouse was strategically built to withstand enemy attacks.
7. She described the blockhouse as a relic of a bygone era.
8. The children played near the blockhouse, imagining it was a castle.
9. Every summer, the town hosts reenactments near the ancient blockhouse.
10. The blockhouse provided shelter for travelers crossing the rugged terrain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blockhouse>