

BLOODED

Meaning: BLOODED: (adjective) Characterized by a particular emotional temperament, such as being cold-blooded (calculating and unemotional) or hot-blooded (passionate and fervent).

1. She was a cold-blooded strategist, always thinking several moves ahead.
2. The athlete was known for his hot-blooded passion on the field, inspiring his teammates.
3. In the world of finance, a hard-blooded approach can sometimes lead to success.
4. The novel portrayed a villain as a remorseless, blooded killer lurking in the shadows.
5. Her blooded determination to succeed drove her to work tirelessly on her goals.
6. Despite his blooded past, he sought redemption and a fresh start in life.
7. The documentary explored the blooded realities of wildlife conservation efforts.
8. His blooded instincts as a detective allowed him to solve the case quickly.
9. She had a blooded love for music that inspired her to learn multiple instruments.
10. In the heat of the moment, his blooded rage took control, clouding his judgment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blooded>