

BLOODGUILTY

Meaning: Bloodguilty refers to having committed a serious crime, particularly one involving murder, and feeling a sense of guilt or moral culpability for that act.

1. The defendant was found bloodguilty after the jury reviewed the evidence.
2. In his confession, he admitted to feeling bloodguilty for the crime he committed.
3. The concept of being bloodguilty weighed heavily on her conscience.
4. They believed that a bloodguilty verdict would lead to serious consequences.
5. The ancient ritual aimed to cleanse those deemed bloodguilty of their sins.
6. He struggled to live with the bloodguilty label that the community had placed on him.
7. The documentary explored the lives of those labeled as bloodguilty throughout history.
8. In the courtroom, the atmosphere was tense as the bloodguilty verdict was announced.
9. She felt bloodguilty for not intervening when she had the chance.
10. The notion of being bloodguilty haunted him long after the trial was over.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bloodguilty>