

BLOODTHIRSTY

Meaning: Bloodthirsty: having an intense desire for bloodshed or violence; savage and ruthless.

1. The bloodthirsty warrior charged into battle with a fierce determination.
2. Legends spoke of a bloodthirsty creature lurking in the depths of the forest.
3. His bloodthirsty desire for revenge consumed him entirely.
4. The film depicted a bloodthirsty vampire who hunted during the darkest nights.
5. In the story, a bloodthirsty tyrant ruled the kingdom with an iron fist.
6. The bloodthirsty mob clamored for justice in the streets.
7. She could hear the bloodthirsty cries of the fans as the game intensified.
8. The bloodthirsty beast prowled the shadows, waiting for its next victim.
9. Their bloodthirsty quest for power led to their ultimate downfall.
10. The novel's antagonist was a bloodthirsty villain with no remorse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bloodthirsty>