

BLOT

Meaning: BLOT (noun): A spot or stain made by a liquid, often dark or discolored, that has been absorbed into a surface.

1. The ink left a noticeable blot on the page.
2. She tried to remove the coffee blot from her white shirt.
3. His careless mistakes resulted in a blot on his otherwise perfect record.
4. The artist decided to incorporate a large black blot into her painting.
5. A single blot of paint dripped down the canvas, creating an unexpected effect.
6. He quickly dabbed the blot of grease off the counter.
7. The news was a dark blot on the otherwise bright day.
8. She noticed a small blot of mud on his shoes after they walked through the park.
9. The editor marked a blot in the manuscript that needed correction.
10. They feared that the scandal would leave a permanent blot on their reputation.
11. The ink left a large blot on the page, ruining the neatness of my notes.
12. She tried to clean the coffee blot from the tablecloth before her guests arrived.
13. A sudden rainstorm caused a blot of water to spread across the painting.
14. His reputation was marred by the blot of scandal that emerged last year.
15. The artist skillfully used a blot of color to create depth in the landscape.
16. I noticed a blot of grease on my shirt after finishing my lunch.
17. The dark blot on the white canvas drew everyone's attention at the gallery.
18. After the spill, there was a noticeable blot on the carpet that wouldn't come out.
19. To highlight the text, she used a subtle blot of highlighter on the key points.
20. They worked tirelessly to remove the blot from their family history.
21. The ink had spread across the page, leaving a large, dark blot.
22. She tried to remove the blot from her shirt, but the stain was stubborn.

23. In his haste to write, he accidentally made a blot on the important document.
24. The artist incorporated a blot of color to enhance the painting's vibrancy.
25. After the spill, there was a blot of coffee on the table that needed cleaning.
26. He noticed a small blot on the canvas that disrupted the otherwise perfect artwork.
27. To his dismay, the watercolors mixed and created an unsightly blot on the paper.
28. The detective found a blot of blood that led him to the crime scene.
29. She used a tissue to soak up the blot of mascara that had smudged her eyelid.
30. The child's finger left a blot of mud on the freshly painted wall.
31. The artist used a small brush to carefully blend the ink blot on the canvas.
32. She noticed a dark blot on her white shirt after spilling coffee.
33. The detective examined the blood blot found at the crime scene for clues.
34. He tried to erase the embarrassing memory, but it remained a permanent blot in his mind.
35. The teacher asked the students to identify the ink blot in the Rorschach test.
36. A dark blot of clouds gathered on the horizon, signaling an approaching storm.
37. He applied a special solution to remove the ink blot from the paper.
38. The committee's final decision left a blot on their reputation due to its controversial nature.
39. A blot of paint splattered across the floor during the renovation.
40. She carefully dabbed the wet blot with a tissue to avoid spreading it further.