

BLOTCH

Meaning: A blotch is a large, irregular mark or stain on a surface.

1. The painter accidentally left a large blotch of paint on the canvas.
2. She noticed a dark blotch on her shirt after spilling coffee.
3. The artist embraced the blotch as a part of the painting's charm.
4. A red blotch appeared on his skin, prompting a visit to the doctor.
5. The old wall was covered in a blotch of mold that needed to be cleaned.
6. He tried to cover the blotch with another layer of paint, but it still showed through.
7. The child giggled at the blotch of mud on her dress as she played outside.
8. Her face turned pale when she saw the blotch on the family photo.
9. In the fading light, a blotch of color remained in the sky after sunset.
10. The report was marred by a blotch of misinformation that confused readers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blotch>