

BLOW-OFF

Meaning: 'Blow-off' refers to the act of dismissing or neglecting responsibilities or obligations, often to engage in leisure or relieve stress.

1. She decided to blow off her responsibilities for the weekend and go on a spontaneous trip.
2. His casual attitude towards the project made it seem like he was just trying to blow off steam.
3. After a long week, they planned a night out to blow off some steam at their favorite bar.
4. He couldn't believe that she would blow off their dinner plans without any explanation.
5. Sometimes people need to blow off a little steam to relieve stress and recharge.
6. The boss was furious when he discovered that several employees had blown off the meeting.
7. It's important to have hobbies that allow you to blow off some steam after a hectic day.
8. She felt guilty for blowing off her friends when they needed her the most.
9. They organized a fun event to help the team blow off some steam after the busy season.
10. He realized that blowing off his chores only made the situation worse in the long run.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blow-off>