

BLOWBALL

Meaning: Blowball refers to the fluffy, seed-bearing head of a dandelion or similar plant that can be dispersed by blowing.

1. The children excitedly blew on the dandelion's blowball, watching the seeds float away.
2. In the garden, the blowball danced gently in the breeze, marking the arrival of spring.
3. She picked a blowball and made a wish before releasing it into the wind.
4. His childhood memories were filled with afternoons spent blowing blowballs into the air.
5. The blowball glimmered in the sunlight, a delicate reminder of nature's beauty.
6. With a single breath, the blowball dispersed its seeds across the lush green field.
7. They gathered blowballs to decorate their picnic table for the outdoor gathering.
8. The blowball's fragile nature captivated her, a symbol of fleeting moments.
9. He taught her how to identify a blowball amidst the wildflowers in the meadow.
10. As the sun set, the blowball seemed to glow, a soft beacon in the twilight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blowball>