

BLOWN

Meaning: Blown: moved or propelled by force, often referring to air or wind, or deeply impressed or astonished.

1. The leaves were blown across the yard by the brisk autumn wind.
2. She was blown away by the stunning performance of the orchestra.
3. His plans were completely blown apart when the storm hit unexpectedly.
4. The candles were blown out as the gust of wind swept through the open door.
5. After the argument, he felt his confidence had been blown to pieces.
6. They watched as the hot air balloon was blown higher into the sky.
7. The news of their engagement blew through the town like wildfire.
8. She had blown her chance at a promotion by missing the deadline.
9. The unexpected revelation had blown their previous assumptions out of the water.
10. His mind was blown by the complexity of the scientific theory.
11. The wind had blown fiercely all night, leaving debris scattered everywhere.
12. She felt her plans had been completely blown away by the sudden changes.
13. The whistle blew, and the game was officially blown to a halt.
14. His hopes were blown apart when he received the rejection letter.
15. The artist's new mural was blown up on social media, attracting thousands of views.
16. After the explosion, the building was left blown to pieces.
17. The children laughed as the dandelion seeds were blown into the air.
18. Her surprise party was blown when she accidentally overheard the planning.
19. His reputation was blown out of proportion by the media frenzy.
20. The leaves were blown across the yard, creating a colorful mosaic on the ground.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blown>