

BLOWTUBE

Meaning: A blowtube is a long, narrow tube used for blowing air, typically employed in glassblowing to shape molten glass or in musical instruments to produce sound.

1. In the workshop, the artisans used a blowtube to shape molten glass into intricate designs.
2. The musician expertly crafted sounds by blowing through the tube, mesmerizing the audience.
3. During the science experiment, we learned how air pressure works by using a blowtube to move the ball.
4. The ancient Egyptians are believed to have created early versions of the blowtube for glassmaking.
5. She demonstrated her skill with the blowtube, creating beautiful bubbles that floated in the air.
6. The blowtube is essential in glassblowing, allowing artisans to manipulate the temperature of the glass.
7. As a child, I was fascinated by how a simple blowtube could create such beautiful shapes.
8. In art class, we used a blowtube to experiment with various colors of paint on canvas.
9. The teacher explained that using a blowtube requires practice to master the technique of controlling airflow.
10. In the hands of a skilled glassblower, the blowtube becomes a magical tool for artistic expression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blowtube>