

BLOWZED

Meaning: Blowzed: Adjective describing something that appears weathered, battered, or wilted, often as a result of strong wind or storm conditions.

1. The wind had blown so fiercely that it left the trees looking blowzed and battered.
2. After the storm passed, the once vibrant flowers were blowzed and drooping.
3. The artist's canvas was blowzed with splashes of color, capturing the chaos of the moment.
4. She wore a blowzed expression, indicating that she had just endured a long and tiring day.
5. The abandoned building stood blowzed, its windows shattered and walls peeling.
6. His hair was blowzed by the strong gusts, giving him a wild appearance.
7. The old car was blowzed, with rust creeping over its once shiny surface.
8. The landscape was blowzed after the harsh winter, with only a few signs of life remaining.
9. He felt blowzed after the long hike, ready to collapse into a chair.
10. The festive decorations looked blowzed after being exposed to the elements for too long.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blowzed>