

BLUBBERING

Meaning: Blubbling: crying noisily and uncontrollably, often with sobs and tears.

1. She was blubbling uncontrollably after watching the emotional movie.
2. The child sat on the floor, blubbling after losing his favorite toy.
3. He couldn't help blubbling during his farewell speech, overwhelmed with emotion.
4. As the news spread, people were left blubbling in disbelief.
5. She tried to speak through her blubbling, but the words wouldn't come out.
6. The puppy whimpered and started blubbling when it was separated from its mother.
7. After receiving the unexpected gift, she was blubbling with joy.
8. His blubbling complaints only made the situation more frustrating for everyone.
9. In the corner of the room, he was blubbling softly into his hands.
10. The blubbling noise from outside drew everyone's attention to the commotion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blubbling>