

BLUFFY

Meaning: Bluffy (adjective): characterized by steep cliffs or bluffs, often referring to a coastal landscape.

1. The bluffy coastline was dotted with dramatic cliffs and crashing waves.
2. He tried to bluff his way through the poker game, but his nervousness gave him away.
3. The bluffy terrain made the hike more challenging than we had anticipated.
4. She wore a bluffy jacket to keep warm against the chilly wind.
5. The artist captured the bluffy landscape with stunning detail in her painting.
6. His bluffy demeanor often led others to underestimate his intelligence.
7. The bluffy hills were covered in vibrant green grass after the spring rains.
8. In the distance, the bluffy mountains loomed majestically against the sky.
9. They enjoyed a picnic on the bluffy ledge, overlooking the serene valley below.
10. Her bluffy laughter filled the room, bringing joy to everyone present.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bluffy>