

BLUNDER

Meaning: A blunder is a serious mistake or error, often resulting in embarrassment or negative consequences.

1. He made a costly blunder during the presentation that embarrassed the entire team.
2. The politician's blunder caused widespread outrage among the voters.
3. After reviewing the reports, she realized her blunder had affected the project's timeline.
4. Despite his expertise, he committed a blunder that led to a major setback.
5. Her blunder in the calculations resulted in a significant financial loss for the company.
6. The coach called it a blunder when the player missed the easy shot in the final seconds.
7. Recognizing his blunder, he quickly apologized to his colleagues for the misunderstanding.
8. The blunder in the recipe left the cake flat and unappetizing.
9. Even the most experienced professionals can make a blunder under pressure.
10. They laughed off the blunder, but it was a lesson learned for the entire group.
11. His blunder during the presentation cost the team an important client.
12. She realized her blunder too late to correct it before the meeting.
13. Despite his best efforts, a small blunder in the report led to significant misunderstandings.
14. The coach's blunder in the final minutes of the game resulted in a devastating loss.
15. It's easy to make a blunder when you're under pressure and trying to multitask.
16. Her blunder in spelling the CEO's name incorrectly made a poor impression.
17. They learned from their blunder and vowed to double-check their work in the future.
18. A careless blunder in judgment can lead to unforeseen consequences.
19. He was embarrassed by the blunder but appreciated the support of his colleagues.
20. The blunder in the calculations delayed the project by several weeks.
21. She realized her blunder too late to correct it.
22. The politician's blunder during the debate cost him many votes.

23. He made a blunder by forgetting to submit the report on time.
24. Her blunder in the presentation led to a series of misunderstandings.
25. Despite the blunder, the team managed to win the game.
26. His careless blunder resulted in the loss of important documents.
27. The teacher pointed out the blunder in the student's essay.
28. They turned the blunder into a learning opportunity for everyone.
29. A simple blunder could have serious consequences in the project.
30. She laughed off her blunder, knowing everyone makes mistakes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blunder>