

BLUNDERHEAD

Meaning: Blunderhead: a foolish or clumsy person who makes careless mistakes.

1. I can't believe I was such a blunderhead to forget her birthday.
2. After tripping over my own feet, I felt like a complete blunderhead in front of everyone.
3. He called himself a blunderhead for misplacing the important documents.
4. My blunderhead mistake cost us the game last night.
5. She laughed at her blunderhead error in the math test, realizing it was a simple oversight.
6. Even the smartest people can act like a blunderhead at times.
7. I felt like a blunderhead when I realized I had been pronouncing his name wrong all along.
8. The blunderhead forgot to save his work, losing hours of effort in an instant.
9. It's easy to feel like a blunderhead when you're in a new city and lost.
10. Don't be a blunderhead; always double-check your work before submitting it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blunderhead>